

I was born on Christmas Day and know Santa personally.

Once I stuck a peanut up my nose and had to get a doctor to take it out.

On our farm there are 440 cows, 8 chooks, 2 dogs, and 2 very naughty goats named Hansel and Gretel.

Growing up as one of 6 kids, I was 22 years old before I had a bedroom of my own.

When I was a kid I locked our cat in the dryer. It never forgave me.

I once invented a game that involved bikes and a blindfold that ended up with my sister riding over a cliff edge. She's fine now but she never forgave me.
